CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I. The highest Bidder to be the Buyer; and if any dispute arise between two or more Bidders, the Lot so disputed to be immediately put up again and resold

II. No person to advance less than 1*s.*; above Five Pounds, 2*s* 6*d*, and so on in proportion.

III. The Purchasers to give in their names and Places of Abode, and to pay down 5*s* in the Pound, if required, in Part Payment of the Purchas money; in Default of which the Lot or Lots so purchased shall be immediately put up again and resold.

IV. The Lots to be taken away at the Buyer's Expense and Risk within three days from the conclusion of the Sale, and the remainder of the Purchase-money to be absolutely paid, or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the Vendor, on or before delivery; in default of which Messrs. PUTTICK AND SIMPSON will not hold themselves responsible, if the Lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the Purchaser.

V. The Lots will be sold (as usual with Autographs and MSS.) with all faults and errors of description.

VI. Upon failure of complying with the above Conditions, the money deposited in part Payment shall be forfeited; and all Lots left uncleared in conformity with these conditions, may be re-sold by public or private Sale without further notice; and the Deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale, shall be made good by the Defaulter at this Sale, together with all charges attending the same. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneers to enforce the contract made at this Sale, without such re-sale, if they think fit.

 No Lots can be delivered at the time of Sale.

Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale, may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their obedient Servants,

PUTTICK AND SIMPSON.

A.L.s. 3 pages 4to. to M. de Fontenelle, Halle en Saxe, Dec. 10, 1737. Scarce and interesting, (Coll. Donnadieu)
Scientific letter relating to his system of finding the longitude at sea. At the age of 6 years Baratier spoke Greek, Latin and German, and at the age of 10 he translated the Hebrew Bible into French.

31 Barére de Vieuzac (Bertrand) violent republican
b. 1756, d. 1841
A.L.s. 1 page 4to. Nov. 30, 1832, scarce; two scarce portraits, and printed extract 4
It was Barére, (not Buonaparte), who is said first to have applied the phrase "une nation boutiquiere," to the English.

32 Barrington (Viscount) Justice Bayley, W. S. Browning, Ralph Bernal, Lady Brownlow, Dss. of Buckingham, Dr. Benson, W. Cowper, (Lord Chancellor), portrait, Dr. Buckner, (Bp. of Chichester), franked, T. Coutts, two ports. J. C. Hobhouse, two aut., Comte Gudin, port. 17

33 Barrot (Odillon) orator, long letter, 2 ports.; Barré (H.) naval commander at St. Domingo, A.L.s. 1803 4

34 Bart (Jean) A.L.s. 3 pages 4to. 1808, port.; Azara, ambassador, A.L.s. 2 pages 4to. 1789 3

35 Barthelemy (Fr. Marq. de) nephew of the Abbé, A.L.s. 1801, 2 ports. of the Abbé; Bassages de Vaucluse, senator, long letter, 1800 4

36 Barton (Barnard) poet, two A.L.s. 1810, 1847, port.; Dr. Beadon, Bp. of Bath and Wells, A.L.s. 1802 4

19 38 Basle (Treaty of) "Traité de Paix entre la République Française et le Roi d'Espagne," 7 pages folio, dated Bâle, July 1, 1794, signed by Sièyes, Rabaut, Jean De Bry, Merlin, and Defermon, an important historical paper

3 7 40 BEAUFORT (Henry) Cardinal . died 1447
Aut. to a Deed, in which he acknowledges to have received of Henry Chicheley, Abp. of Canterbury; Thomas Langley, Bp. of Durham; Richard de Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick; Humfrey de Stafford, Earl of Stafford; and others, 3050 marks, in part of 5000 marks due from them to the Cardinal, 1 page small 4to. with seal, November 23, 1435; VERY IMPORTANT AND RARE, 3 illustrative papers 4

But few autographs of the Cardinal are known. As the handwriting of a personage, immortalized by the pen of Shakspeare, and the pencil of Sir Joshua Reynolds, in their delineations of the horrors of his death-bed scene, as well by the eventful character of his own acts, this autograph must always be regarded with a high degree of interest.

2 4 41 Beauharnois—Palloy—Audoin, etc.
1. Beauharnois (Alex.) president of the National Assembly, first husband of Josephine, sig. to a passport for a day for Palloy, the patriot who was going to join, as their escort, the three deputies Barnave, Latour Maubourg, and Pétion, to whom the National Assembly had entrusted the conducting of Louis XVI. and his family into Paris after their flight and arrest at Varennes, June 24, 1794. The pass is also signed by Lafayette. On the 23rd of the following month Beauharnois fell a victim to the guillotine

2. Audoin (Xavier) assistant to the War Minister, L.s. to Palloy, Sept. 29, 1793

Has received certain papers; accepts, with pleasure, the medal and printed oath; awaits with impatience the declaration of the rights of man, the ruin of despotism, etc.

3. Audoin (Xavier) sig. to a printed Oath, Paris, Sept. 30, 1793

The oath is for the extermination of tyrants, and was subscribed to and sworn by the friends of the Republic, and was delivered with a medal made from the chains of the Bastille and given by Palloy to his republican friends.

4. Palloy, celebrated Republican, short A.L.s. ce 3 Mai, l'an 4 de la liberté

Also nine various illustrations. A curious group of papers

8 42 Beckford (William) Lord Mayor of London.
A.L.s. 1 page 4to. Fonthill, June 29, 1765, scarce, 8 illustrations 9

43 Bedford (Francis Russel, Earl of) of whom Queen Elizabeth was accustomed to say that by his liberality, he made all the beggars. Sig. to a curious bill of travelling charges, 1 page folio, 1561, port. and printed memoir 3

44 Bedford (Duke of) two A.L.s. one franked, 1793-1836, 5 ports.; J. Martin, Librarian at Woburn Abbey, A.L.s. 1 page 8vo. 1842 8

45 Beethoven (L. van) musical composer, Receipt, 1 page 4to. with enclosure to Mr. Stumpff, 3 ports. 5

47 Bellangé, artist, A.L.s. 4 pages 4to. 1836, port.; Bp. of Marseilles, 1771 3

Albini, A.L.s.; D'Albon, mayor of Lyons, (expelled in 1830) A.L.s.; Comte d'Albignac, A.L.s. to the Count D'Entraigues, warning him against two medical men, curious 10

49 Belliard (Augustus, Count) marshal b. 1769, d. 1832

1. A.L.s. 1 page folio, with note of Esteve at the foot, Caire, June, 30, 1799
2. A.L.s. 3 pages 4to. to Murat, May 28, 1808, 2 ports.

An interesting letter, speaking of the sickness and mortality amongst the troops; in an hospital were two thousand and seventy sick; the interference of Joseph, King of Italy; etc.

Bruix (Admiral) A.L.s. 3 pages 4to. Ap. 11, 1797, holograph letters are rare

On "la déplorable situation du premier Port de la République," (Brest) etc.

50 BELLIÈVRE (Pomponne de), Chancellor of France b. 1529, d. 1607

A.L.s. 3 pages folio, to M. de Villeroy, Londres, Dec. 13, 1586. VERY RARE, and of great historical interest. (Coll. Donnadieu)

Pomponne de Bellièvre was sent by Henry III. to Queen Elizabeth to intercede for Mary Queen of Scots, who had been condemned to death. THIS LETTER REFERS TO THE OBJECT OF HIS MISSION:—"Il n'y a alcune esperance de saulver la Royne d'Escosse." The unfortunate Mary was decapitated within two months from this date. A letter somewhat similar to the present, but greatly deficient in interest, has been published by Sir Hen. Ellis. It is such letters as the present that truly enrich a collection.

"Par les auis que l'on nous donne, il n'y aulcune esperance de saulver la Royne d'Escosse. . . Voyant ce que je veois je vouldrois auoir perdu de mon sang et n'auoir pas esté chargé de ce voyage. J'en sortirai au mieulx que je pourrai. Nous auons auis que le roy d'Escosse enuoye icy des principaulx de sa cour, pour dire à la Royne d'Angleterre que si elle passe oultre a fere mourir sa mere, qu'il renonce aux alliances qu'il a auecques la dite dame: nous tenons cest auis pour bien certain. Ce non obstant depuis qu'on l'a sceu an lieu de me donner audience, comme l'on m'auoit promis. J'entends que toutes aultres choses laissées, ils ont vacqué en ceste cour à se resouldre à fere mourir la Royne d'Escosse, et ne doubte que ce sera ce que me dira desmain le grand tresorier.'

51 Benbow (John) admiral (b. 1650, d. 1702) Doc. s. 1 page folio, 1701, scarce; 2 ports. 3

53 Bentinck (Geo. Cavendish) son of the Duke of Portland, A.L.s. when very young, to his father, 1752, print 2

54 Beranger (P. J. de) chansonnier, A.L.s. to the Editor of the Constitutionnel, 1823, 4 ports. newspaper cuttings; letters of Bp. Benigni, 1813, John William, Elector of Bensberg

55 Beresford (Viscount) Field-Marshal
A.L.s. 2 pages folio, Cintra, July 17, 1811, 2 ports. 3

Interesting: "I am fully aware of the little dependence to be placed in Spanish troops where the protection of Portugal is the object," etc.

56 Bergami (Baron Franchina) chamberlain to Queen Caroline ("non mi ricordo") A.L.s. 1 page 4to. Pesaro, Sept. 30, 1820, to Sig. Caccia, thanking him for his care of his "cara Victorina," and asking for copies of the proceedings against the Queen, as published—2 ports.; De Begnis, musician, letter to Benelli; G. White, A.L.s. 5

57 Bernadotte (C. J.) King of Sweden, L.s. 1 page 8vo. April 7, 1802—port.; Adm. Bruix, L.s. 1798; Mr. Anson, Secretary to Prince Albert, note 4

57*—— Sig. with several others to a paper relative to a military council, 1808—2 ports. and printed extract 4

64 Bethune (James) Abp. of Glasgow, ambassador from Marie Stuart to the Court of France
Doc. s. being an act of homage, ceding to the King the lands of Bourbonne and Chereaux, "à cause de son château de Coeffy, au Comté de Chaumont en Bassigny," on vellum, 1 page folio, Paris, Mar. 15, 1561, fine and RARE

69 Blair (Hugh) D.D. b. 1718, d. 1800
A.L.s. 2 pages 4to. to Strahan, bookseller, Dec. 9, 1798, 3 portraits, and printed memoir 4

Interesting. He has discontinued preaching, after having done so for 56 years; nor does he study either. After noticing the interest felt by the public in some entertaining book of travels, or some good novel, more than in any piece of deep literature, he enquires, "is there anything of that kind coming out to amuse old and idle fellows like me?"

b. 1483, d. 1536
A.L.s. 3 pages folio, closely written, to the Emperor Charles V. Bucdon, Ebrero 8. In very fine preservation, with seal, EXCESSIVELY RARE, AND OF EXTREME INTEREST; portrait by Houbraken, (Coll. Donnadieu) 2

The unfortunate Queen, now divorced, writes to the Emperor, her nephew, to come to her aid in her extremity, and she speaks of her daughter (afterwards Queen Mary) as sharing her distress and fearful forebodings. She concludes her letter with excuses for its many faults and obliterations, which are occasioned by her hand being guided and affected by the agitation and distress of an oppressed and sorely distressed heart. One perceives by this letter the humiliating and disgraceful position of the Emperor, who evinced the greatest unconcern for and coolness towards the unfortunate Queen, whose outraged feelings should have engaged his commiseration and support. The whole letter may be regarded as a most important historical document.

127 CATHERINE PARR, sixth and last Queen of Henry VIII. d. 1548

A.L.s. "Fouquier de Tinville," 1 page 8vo. Mai 28, 1789, two portraits and print

The letter is presumed to be very rare with this form of signature; the affix "de," savouring of nobility put many a head in peril, and it can scarcely be, except in inadvertance, that the monster Tinville, whose boast it was that he never voted but for death, should at this date have used the obnoxious particle.

232 Fourcroy (A. F. de) chemist
1. A.L.s. 1 page 4to. Floréal 7, an 10 (May 1, 1802)

A.L.s. 2 pages 8vo. 1832, portrait

"The suggestion does great honour to the kindness of Mr. Murray. Few booksellers know better than himself that laurels are not fruit trees."

9 258 Garrick (David) actor b. 1716, d. 1779 — Boone
A.L.s. 3 pages 4to. to Capt. Thompson, Adelphi, June 20, 1767, portrait 2

Very interesting. He speaks of the unjust virulence of Foote, who, as he says, had rather be witty than either just or wise; he had been going to beat Dr. Kenrick for his infamy, but the latter "smok'd ye crab tree," and wrote a most cowardly letter; he concludes by referring to Bickerstaff's flight from England, and the cause of it—"What a wretch he must be."

259 GARRICK (David).
A.L.s. 3 pages 4to. to Capt. Thompson, Feb. 22, 1768, capital specimen, portrait 2

A friendly letter, promising to exert his influence to obtain some favour, probably promotion or employment, and detailing his plans. He has secured the intervention of a clergyman, a great friend of Sir Edward Hawke, and who recently got a living through Garrick's recommendation. He intends, however, to plant the "weight of his artillery against the First Lord;" "and as Sir Ed. [Hawke] has ask'd me some favours in my way, for we are in great vogue I assure you, I shall surround him with applications, and throw Tom Fool's mite into the bargain."

260 —— A.L.s. 3 pages 4to. to Capt. Thompson, Hampton, March 27, 1768, with seal, portrait

Some items of political news. "Wilkes is chosen for Middlesex, and the mob is so riotous upon it, that it is dangerous to ride in a coach on which "No. 45" is not put upon some part of it."

261 —— A.L.s. 2 pages folio, in French, Jan. 21; fine specimen

To a French translator of Shakspeare's works, complimenting him on the merit of his version, and offering civilities if he should chance to visit England.

262 —— A.L.s. 3 pages 8vo. to G. Colman, no date, portrait

An interesting letter about some theatrical business, about which there appears to have been a disagreement. Concluding, "You have, I assure you, my heart, and then it is very little to say that you may command my purse at all times, and confer an obligation by doing it."

263 Ganteaume (Comte H. J. A.) Admiral b. 1755, d. 1818
A.L.s. 3 pages folio, to M. Bonsignour, Jan. 3, 1802, RARE

A letter of business.

264 Garzoni (Giovanna) senator, keeper of the private archives of Venice
Five letters beautifully written, 1630—31

265 Genlis (Stephanie, Countess de) b. 1746, d. 1830
A.L.s. 2½ pages 4to. closely written, Sept. 27, 1808, very fine and scarce, portrait

A very curious letter as it respects the administration of the public Libraries in France, a subject which has recently occupied much attention. Mme. de Genlis is called upon to return a MS. which she has borrowed from the Library of the Arsenal, but which she manifests a desire to keep, alleging as reasons that she has in so doing the countenance of the Emperor, that no other person before herself has had the courage or the industry to wade through the Collection, and that, after all, it is but a copy, as the original is in the Bibliothèque Impériale. The MS. referred is the Memoirs of Danjeau.

299 Guillaume (Fred.) General of Brigade, A.L.s. 3 pages 4to. to Collot D'Herbois, Luçon, Messidor 26, an 2, (July 14, 1749)
A very curious letter of the period. The printed heading is "Liberté, Egalité, ou la Mort." He says, [translated] "the more corrupt men are, the more necessary it is to employ conciliatary measures to lead them back to virtue. With patience we shall bring the insurgents of La Vendée again back to order." He details his plans for this purpose, including a demonstration on the part of the army, the eretion of a new town to be called Commune libre; no church but a temple of virtue; the administration to be in the hands of foreigners; to speak only of peace and liberty; to tell the people they are patriots, and by dint of repeating it to them they will become so. He, however, does not omit 48,000 well disciplined troops, and contemplates the existence of 20,000 insurgents, in the very bosom of the Republic.

Relative to some engagements for the opera, then under Handel's management. This is one of the two letters printed in the Memoirs of the Colman Family, and is of no less interest as the autograph of one of the greatest musicians that ever lived, than as an illustration of the early history of the opera in this country. The other of the two letters alluded to occurred in Mr. Ray's sale, where it produced 10 guineas.

Respecting a house he is about taking in Philadelphia, stating various requirements with regard to it, "no seats at the street doors to collect lounging servants." . . . "To take a house built on my own plan, for 10 years, would be wedding myself to the seat of government longer than I would chuse," etc.

360 —— A.L.s. 2 pages 4to. to the Earl of Buchan, Washington, July 10, 1803, portrait 2

A most interesting and characteristic letter. He acknowledges the receipt of a copy of the Earl of Buchan's Life of Fletcher of Saltoun, and expresses high admiration of the political principles of that patriot. In speaking with approbation of the principles of whiggism, he says, "freely admitting at the same time, the right of a nation to change its political principles and constitution at will, and the impropriety of any but its own citizens censuring that change." His sentiments upon the pacific policy are admirable, based as he contends they are, "not on the Quaker's principle of non-resistance under every wrong, but in the belief that a just and friendly conduct on our part will procure justice and friendship for others," etc.

On some scientific pursuits then occupying his attention. Roland was one of those who had the courage to denounce the massacres of the first Revolution. He died by his own hand, being unable to sustain the loss of his wife, who fell a victim in the reign of terror. See the next No.

632 ROLAND (Manon Jeanne) the heroic wife of the minister of the interior b. 1754, d. 1793

A.L.s. 4 pages 4to. to M. Lauthenas, Lyon, Juin 30, 1790, VERY RARE, 3 portraits

A superb letter. It concludes, "O, mes amis, gardons bien la liberté; car, si nous venions à la perdre après cette grande egalité, nous serions plus esclaves que jamais! Soutiens bien l'opinion publique contre la guerre qui nous menace, contre le décret qui y est relatif; et sur le necessité de voies claires dans nos finances; toujours des millions et point de comptes! cela me fait sauter aux nues. Faites donc vendre les biens ecclésiastiques; jamais nous ne serons débarassés des bêtes féroces tant qu'on ne détruire pas leur répaire. Adieu, brave homme; je me moque du sifflement des serpens; ils ne sauroient troubler mon repos."

It was the writer of these lines who, on the way to the scaffold, bowed before the statue of Liberty, and gave utterance to the memorable words, "O, Liberté, que de crimes on commet en ton nom!"

666 SHAKSPEARE.

Deed of Bargain and Sale by Henry Walker, citizen and minstrel, of a House, to William Shakespeare, of Stratford-upon-Avon, in the county of Warwick, gentleman, William Johnson, citizen and vintner, John Jackson and John Hemynge, all of London, gentlemen. On parchment, March 10, 1612. Signed by H. Walker (with his seal) and attested by the same persons whose names appear as witnesses of Shakspeare's Signature on the Counterpart of this Deed, now in the Library, Guildhall, having been purchased by the Corporation of London, in 1843

The Tenement is set forth as "All that dwelling House or tenement wth the appurtenances, situate and being within the precinct, circuit, and compasse of the late Blackfryers, London, sometimes in the tenure of James Gardyner Esq., and since that in the tenure of John ffortescue, gent., and now or late being in the tenure or occupation of one William Ireland, or his Assignee or Assignees abutting upon a streete leading down to Pudle Warfe, on the east part, right against the King's Maiesties Wardrobe, part of w^ch^ said Tenement is erected over a great gate leading to a capital messuage w^ch^ sometyme was in the tenure of William Blackwell, Esquire, deceased, and since that in the tenure or occupacõn of the Right Honorable Henry, now Earl of Northumherland."

It will be observed that Shakspeare is described as of Stratford upon Avon, Mr. Collier remarks hereon (Memoirs of Ed. Alleyn, pp. 104-5), "Why Shakespeare returned to the metropolis for the purpose of purchasing, and on the next day mortgaging, the tenement in Blackfriars, is a question that does not appear to have occurred to his biographers. One of the parties named in both the deeds was John Hemming, who was a principal manager in the King's Company occupying the 'Globe' and the Blackfriars Theatres; and it is very possible that both the purchase and mortgage were in some way, not now easily explained, connected with the sale of Shakespeare's theatrical property, of which, of course, he was desirous to dispose, with a view to his undisturbed residence at Stratford." This property remained in Shakspeare's possession at the time of his decease, and was bequeathed by him to his daughter Susanna.

The Counterpart of this Deed in the Guildhall Library, as before stated, and the Mortgage Deed, in the British Museum, have each the autograph of Shakspeare; although this document does not possess this distinction, yet as a Shakspearian relic it may even lay claim to higher esteem, as having heen in Shakspeare's own possession for upwards of four years, and is probably the only tangible thing which may ever he recovered of which it may he said, with certainty, that it was owned and handled by the Immortal Bard.

667 SHAKSPEARE.

Conveyance, to the uses of Shakspeare's Will, of the House in Blackfriars, to his daughter Susanna, married to John Hall, signed by J. Jackson, J. Hemynge, and W. Johnson, dated Feb. 10, 1617, on parchment, with the seals of the parties; portrait

This document is interesting in relation to Shakspeare's circumstances at the time of his decease, showing that although the property was mortgaged the day after its purchase, yet that this encumhrance did not exist at his decease, otherwise this conveyance could not have taken place. There has heen some doubt as to who and what was the husband of Shakspeare's daughter Judith. He is here mentioned as Thomas Quiney, of Stratford, Vintner. The declaration of entail created hy the Will, which is here set forth, is of value for the family history of Shakspeare, respecting which so little documentary history exists.

668 Shenstone (William) poet b. 1714, d. 1763.

A.L.s. ("W*. Shens*") 4 pages 4to. [to Madame Riccoboni], Leasowes, Feb. 27, 1755, a fine specimen, 5 portraits

Remarks on his own feeble health—elegant compliments to his fair correspondent—her verses in Dodsley's Miscellany, which Shenstone appears to have had the temerity to alter, and had been reproved for his interference.

A very curious letter, written when about eighteen years of age. Full of banter about balloons, upon which subject the French public were just then half-crazed. After enumerating many possible and probable advantages of aërostation, he says, "J'entends sans cesse cries autour de moi, 'à quoi bon cette machine? à quoi cela nous menera t-il?'—à la Lune, je leur repondrai, oui Monsieur à la Lune." The first balloon ascent in England, by Lunardi, did not take place until September following the date of this letter.

707 Voltaire (F. M. Arouet, called) b. 1694, d. 1778
A.L.s. "V." 2 pages 4to. to M. Dupont, Avocat, Oct. 1755, fine and rare.

Commences "Mon cher ami,—Les maladies découragent à la fin. Il y a trois mois que j'ay cessé tout commerce auec le genre humain." He mentions in the course of his letter several of his friends, Mme. Denis (his niece) &c. Marked No. XIX. (? published in the Correspondance).

708 —— L.s. 4 pages 4to. to M. le Marquis de Chauvelin, Amb. à Turin, Ferney, Fev. 14, 1760. The letter is signed by Voltaire, "V. l'aveugle," and a line of superscription at the commencement is probably in his hand, the rest is written by Wagniere, his secretary.

An interesting, gossiping letter, mentioning several of his friends, and events in which he had been engaged, the result of destiny, and romantic in their character. He refers to the favourable termination of the Calas affair, and exclaims "jugez s'il ne faut pas croire au destin comme les turcs. Qui aurait dit il y a cinq ans que le Roy de Prusse résisterait aux trois quarts de l'Europe, et que vous seriez trop heureux de ceder le Canada aux Anglais."

709 —— Copy of a letter in the hand of Wagniere, his secretary, to M. Girard, Receveur du Domaine, à Dijon, 2 pages 4to. with an inscription at the commencement in the hand of Voltaire, "Copie de ma lettre," etc. and at the end, also in his hand, "Signé, Voltaire, gentilhomme ord. du Roy," etc.

Certain queries addressed to the Fermiers Généraux, respecting an estate at Tournay. The letter, although a copy, appears to have been sent through the post to M. Girard, as above.

19 710 Voltaire. 1. L.s. "Voltaire," the body of the letter in the hand of Wagniere, Ferney, Fev. 26, 1775. Letters signed in full and rare

2. "Le Codicille de M. de Voltaire, trouvé dans ses papiers après son décés." Contains curious directions for his funeral, etc. "on aura soin de réciter pendant la marche du convoi, quelques chants de ma Pucelle, ou mon Epître à Uranie pour me servir de passeport dans l'autre monde." Very curious.

3. Three documents, signed by one of the Arouët Family, and a letter respecting the correspondence of Voltaire, apparently by one of his friends.

4. Various illustrations, 8 portraits, 2 facsimiles, a piece of the paper hangings of Voltaire's bedchamber together, 17

R. Bell

Declaration "given at our Court, Oct. 10, 1720," strongly inciting to disaffection toward the House of Brunswick. Transcript.

2 6 907 Johnson (John) author of "The Clergyman's Vade Mecum," A.L.s. 1 page 4to. to Robert Nelson, Cranbrook, Jan. 28, 1714 Secret

In reference to the many thousand copies which were printed of his Clergyman's Vade Mecum. Another letter apparently in his autograph, St. John's Coll. Oxon. Sept. 17, 1721, notices "R. N. of blessed memory, my familiar Friend and Brother."

1 1 908 Lucy (Lady Theophila) subsequently the wife of Robert Nelson, autograph letters before and after her marriage, 1689-90 Hollow

Replete with endearments. In one, dated June 10, 1689, she writes —"I often kiss you, dear sir, in imagination. It is well your picture has a glass before it, or else my mother and I should leave you neither eyes nor mouth. I wish you would come quickly!" Others are subscribed, "thy faithful, passionate lover;" and "I embrace thee with great tenderness, and am wholly thine, body and mind." Again, "Good night! I buss thee in imagination; have kind thoughts of poor The."

Bull 4 Morgan

2 914 Morpeth (Edward Howard, Viscount) two letters, one, Bologna, Nov. 7, the other from the Hague, Jan. 5. The last highly interesting from the historical news it contains Waller

12 915 Nelson (Mrs. Delicia) two long and interesting letters to her son Robert Nelson, 1680-92; Sir Gabr. Roberts, letters to his nephew, 1690-1; Gabriel Roberts the younger, 1690; Long and interesting letters from his cousin Jno. Hanger, Aleppo, 1686-90; Jer. Gregory, Chichester, letters, 1683-6; Rev. John Hutton of Nayland, various letters; and many others, addressed to Robert Nelson 53 Secretan

Most of them are family letters; Mrs. Nelson complains of "the bad weather, cold and rain," July, 1632, which will prevent her being with his aunt, as his uncle desired, "against his wife cryes out." Mentions her brother Hanger, and that Mrs. Gregory's son, christened Jeremy, died at the week's end.

916 Nelson (Robert) Letters to his Father-in-law, Earl Berkeley; Lady Elizabeth Berkeley to Nelson; Lady Theophila Lucy's petition to Queen Mary respecting Sir Berkeley Lucy; etc. 24

The petition, and the writ of Privy Seal which followed, created the greatest possible mischief in the Earl's family.

917 Nelson. Mercantile letters from P. Burrell and Company of Oporto, 1677-85; John Hanger, Aleppo, 1678-84, addressed to Robert Nelson, Warneford Court, Throgmorton Street a large parcel

Robert Nelson, the second son of John Nelson, and Delicia his wife, sister of Sir Gabriel Roberts, both eminent Turkey merchants, was born in London, June 22, 1656. John, the first son, died young, and also Gabriel, the third son. John Nelson, the father, died while Robert was but a youth. The latter entered Trinity College, Cambridge, August 2, 1677, was for some time under the tuition of Dr. Bull, and continued on the College books till after Michaelmas, 1684. With the mercantile conduct referred to in these letters, Nelson appears to have had little or no concern; the Hangers were his cousins, and the business in London from several admissions is shewn to have been transacted by Sir Gabriel Roberts, to whom John, the father, had left his son as his future guardian.

918 Nelson (Robert) Six A.L.s. to Dr. Francis Lee, New Buildings, near Spicer's Street, Spitalfields, 1712-14; Two letters from Dr. Lee to Nelson 8

These letters relate to the life of Bp. Bull. Dr. Lee appears to have been Nelson's assistant in that work.

919 Nelson. The subscription lists for defraying the expenses of the Welsh Translation of his Companion for the Festivals and Fasts. Translated by Thomas Williams, Rector of Denbigh, 1712 2

920 Nelson (Robert) Extracts from Theological Writings and Papers, copies and drafts of letters a large parcel

922 Palatine (Anne, Electress) A.L.s. 2 pages 4to. to Madame Nelson, Dusseldorff, April 10, 1692

Sends the little Brunette by her to England, to be restored to her parents; highly complimentary. "Je prend la liberté de vous envoier mon portrait lequel vous regarderez dans ma place, cepandant priez le bon Dieu pour moi." Gold dust has been sprinkled over the writing.

923 Parker (S.) Letter accepting Nelson's definition of a Presbyter, Oct. 13, 1713, with Papers on various subjects, several of them in Nelson's writing

924 Paschall (Andrew) Four Autograph Letters to Robert Nelson, Chelsea, July 24 to Nov. 9, 1686

The first, two closely written pages folio, has full details of the discomfiture of the Duke of Monmouth at Sedgmore, a fine historical letter. The others refer to that event, but more generally to some manuscripts relating to Glastonbury Abbey. One is described as "about forty leaves in folio, in parchment, written as I guess about 1340. It is a collection out of six or seven very ancient books belonging to the estate of that abbey." A subsequent letter has extracts, and the volume is more particularly noticed as an account of the Feoda Militaria, belonging to the Abbot and Monastery, in several counties which are named.

925 Plott (T.) Various letters of news to Robert Nelson, Empoli, 1690-2, very interesting 20

926 Pocock (Tho.) Six letters addressed to Robert Nelson, at the Hague, and at Florence, 1690-1

Pocock appears to have been Nelson's steward.

927 Prior (Matthew) poet, A.L.s. 3 pages 4to. to Mr. R. Nelson, Westm. July 18, 1692. Fine and scarce

In reference to some lace belonging to Lady Gray, which with some parcels belonging to Prior had been seized at the Custom House, but eventually released by Prior's friends at the Treasury. Hopes Mrs. Brunetti was well. "Pray let her know that my Muse has left trumpets and drums, and shall for the future be employed in notes as Love and she direct me." Refers to the losing of Namur.

To this interesting letter is added another from Bensberg, Sept. 17, 1691, signed Anu Leonora Brunetti. Her name occurs frequently in the Nelson correspondence.

928 Raymond (J.) Letter to "Dr. Lee, in Spittlefields," dated Barton, Sept. 17, 1714, forwards Letters of Robert Nelson towards his Life of Nelson—Rich. Horsey, 10 letters to Nelson, Leghorn, 1690-1—Thos. S. Williams, 4 letters to Nelson, from Venice, 1690-1 15

930 Robinson (John), Bishop of London, Four A.L.s. to Robert Nelson, April 7, May 15, 1714

The first promises to preach the sermon for the Charity Schools; the last refers to his having, at a Committee of Council, to mention the ignominious part of Mr. Bedford's sentence.

931 Sherlock. Roberts (Sir Gabriel) A.L.s. three pages folio, to his nephew, Robert Nelson, Oct. 10, 1690 2

"Dr. Sherlock has taken the oath, and is restored to all his benefices, and will, they say, be made a bishop; he has by this one action lost the esteem of everybody." Very interesting.

Dr. Sherlock, (as Master of the Temple,) A.L.s. 2 pages folio to Robert Nelson, Temple, June 20, 1714, upon the distressed condition of Katherine Hall, Cambridge, and soliciting aid.

932 Smalridge (George), Bishop of Bristol, two A.L.s., one to Henry Hoare, Fleet Street, Christ Ch. Coll. Oxon. Jan. 30, 1714, lamenting his pious and honoured friend. The other to Robert Nelson, Christ Ch. Oxford, Whitsunday, 1714, relative to the death of Dr. Turner, sorry to find such severe reflections cast on his memory as a greedy, avaricious man. College news, etc. 4

933 Spinola (Dom.) Marquis de Capo, Genoa, 1690—Mad. Maria Pall. Rospigliosa, Roma, June 3, 1690; and other Italian and French letters, addressed to Mr. Nelson, 1689-92 18

934 Tenison, Tillotson, and Sherlock, Sermons and Lectures, 1682, in shorthand, a folio volume

935 Talbot (B.) Three letters to Robert Nelson, whom he addresses as "My Great Apollo," and in another "Dearest of Friends," Roma, 1682—Ja. Fall, 3 letters in reference to purchases of Parisian embroidered waistcoat, cravats, cuffs, and sword, the latter at a cost of 27*l.* 10*s* for Monsieur Nelson, 1683—John Baptist Sleyne, 4 letters, Roma, 1690-2; all interesting 10

Talbot in his first, relates, "Dear Lord Shrewsbury has been pleased to add fifty pounds a year to his poor allowance."

936 TENISON (Thomas) A.L.s. 1 page 4to. to Sir Berkeley Lucy, St. Martin's, Oct. 2, 1690. Fine and scarce

Refers to the moderation of the Government, that the most scrupulous Dr. Sherlock, for example, had freely taken the oath of allegiance, and as the minister of the parish, appealing to former associations, could not forbear applying to him to do the same. A letter that does honour to Tenison, who was elected Bishop of Lincoln in 1691, and Archbishop of Canterbury, 1694.

937 Tillotson (Archbp.) Letter to a Friend who lay ill of a languishing distemper, Jan. 16, 1688; transcript by Robert Nelson

938 Tuscany. Prince Jean Gaston, Seven Letters to Robert Nelson, Du Poge, 1691, Leghorn, and Florence, 1692

Familiar letters on passing events.

939 Williams (John) Bishop of Chichester, three A.L.s. to R. Nelson, 1681-91, full of interesting matter—Errata in Dr. Hickes' "Devotions," 26 pages in the autograph of Williams, 1709.

940 BOSSUET, Bishop of Meaux

ABOUT SIXTY AUTOGRAPH LETTERS, to Madame D'Albert, variously dated from Meaux, Paris, Versailles, Germigny, etc. 1690-98 63

The Lady to whom these letters are addressed was a religieuse of the Abbey of Jouarre, and appears to have been favoured with the intimate friendship and esteem of the eminent prelate who wrote them. They consist, as may be expected, to a large extent, of religious counsel and exhortation, with occasional reference to matters of worldly interest. They evince throughout a spirit of fervent piety, and thus, as well as being examples of elegant writing in the epistolary style, they are all that might be expected of their gifted writer. Many of the letters occupy four, or more pages, and are entirely in the hand of the writer, mostly being signed in full, "J. BENIGNE EV. DE MEAUX." Three or four of the letters seem to be incomplete. Together they form a very valuable and highly interesting series.

941 VINCENT DE PAUL (Saint) b. 1576, d. 1660

946 LUTHER (MARTIN)
Autograph inscription, occupying 2¼ pages of the fly-leaves of "Sermones Pomerii de Tempore." EXTREMELY RARE, in perfect preservation

This is an encyclical letter written to the persecuted inhabitants of Oschatz who had been driven away for their adherence to the reformed religion. He exhorts them in characteristic style to be patient and firm in the faith, encouraging them by a reference to the history of David, and appeals to his ultimate deliverance from the hands of his enemies, as affording an assurance of God's relief to all his persecuted people. This letter was printed in the year of its date, as a pamphlet, and the present is said to be the original as delivered by the author to the printer. The epistle is a famous one and is to be found in all editions of Luther's printed works.

1021 Pretender (The). Secret anonymous letter to Mr. Borlase, giving an account of the Victory of Culloden, and stating that the writer rode over the field of battle with the Duke of Cumberland, and found the number slain greater than was imagined. Twelve pieces of cannon were taken, and several men of consequence killed among the Highlanders. The Pretender gave out orders that no quarter should be given to the British. It is thought the rebel army amounted to about 8000 men. The Pretender and the Duke of Perth made their escape as soon as they perceived how things would go: this circumstance makes the writer think he is the legitimate offspring of King James. The rebels give out they have 4000 killed and wounded. Inverness, 18th Aug. 1746, very curious.
